Summary: On November 26, 2001, Christine Mailloux, attorney for The Utility Reform Network (TURN), had a telephone conversation with Cmmr. Brown. Mailloux suggested that Pacific Bell Telephone Company's (Pacific) entry into the long distance market would be premature at this time. Mailloux stated that TURN believes that the risks to the fledging competitive local market and minimal consumer benefits realized thus far outweigh any potential benefits of Pacific's entry into the long distance market.
